"When a Government employee does not want to accept the promotion which is offered to him, he may make a written request that he may not be promoted and the request will be considered by the appointing authority, stating relevant aspects into consideration. If the reason adduced for refusal of promotion are acceptable to the appointing authority, the next person in the select list may be promoted. On the eventual promotion to the higher grade, such Government servant will loss seniority vis-à-vis his juniors promoted to the higher grade earlier irrespective of the fact whether the post in question are filled by selection or otherwise. The above mentioned policy will not apply where ad-hoc promotions against short term vacancies are refused"
