MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP) CERTIFICATE IN CO-OPERATIVE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT THROUGH MICROFINANCE 22-26 AUGUST 2022 09.00-17.00 Malaysia Time (GMT +8)

MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP)

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was officially launched on 7 September 1983 at the Commonwealth Heads of State Meeting in New Delhi, India, to signify Malaysia's commitment to the South-South Cooperation. In particular, the technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

The MTCP emphasises on the development of human resources through the provision of training in various areas which are essential for a country's development such as agriculture, economy, finance, public management and administration, science & technology, and ICT, health, diplomacy, safety and security, including cyber security, cultural diplomacy, social development, environment-related to SDG2030, education, industrial and technical training. Annually, Malaysia offered more than 40 technical and capacity building programs under the MTCP, which have benefited more than 35,500 participants from 144 countries.

OBJECTIVES OF MTCP:

- To share the development experience with other countries;
- To strengthen bilateral relations between Malaysia and other developing countries;
- To promote South-South Cooperation (SSC); and
- To promote technical cooperation among Developing Countries.

CO-OPERATIVE INSTITUTE OF MALAYSIA (CIM)

As the sole co-operative education institution in Malaysia, CIM has been entrusted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to conduct the Certificate in Co-operative Management and Governance course, the service as recognition by the government of Malaysia to advocate the co-operative sector as the main engine of growth for Malaysia after the public and private sectors. The main functions of CIM are:

- To organize training and education programmes for co-operative movement in the country;
- To disseminate and publish information related to co-operatives;
- To conduct research and consultancy services with regard to co-operative movement.

CERTIFICATE IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT THROUGH MICROFINANCE

Co-operative is at the heart of global trend of community organization and is increasingly proving to be effective vehicle for community action and empowerment. Co-operatives are one of the oldest models for social enterprise, preceding the social enterprise movement by centuries. They are also one of the fastest growing modes of business and are proving their values in tackling some of the biggest social challenges.

Microfinance is emerging as a powerful instrument in new economy to provide financial services to the poor at affordable cost in its endeavor to solve the problems of poverty and unemployment. It had spread emphasis on expanding the network of financial institutions, co-operatives and other self help groups in order to provide credit to the poor and weaker sections of the society.

Based on the statistic provided by Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) showing encouraging trend in total outstanding microfinance loans which in 2015, RM1.03 billion with RM344 million loans disbursed and in 2018, RM1.103 billion with disbursement worth RM292 million.

In the other hand, financing repayment shows increasing trend where RM300 million and RM4371 million was collected in 2015 and 2018 respectively.

Thus, the course focuses on sharing of Malaysian experiences in developing community by providing an in-depth knowledge on Malaysia's long term strategies and policies that have been developed and implemented to develop community through microfinance.

Objectives:

Participants will gain knowledge on how microfinance can help in addressing pressing social issues and built resilient communities. This course provides understanding on fundamentals of microfinance in co-operative, its products, services, issues, challenges and strategies as tool for community development.
