About the Capacity Building Program

Procurement has always been a vital function of the governments and large amounts are spent in public procurement by the Central & State Governments, municipal and other local bodies, statutory corporations and State-Owned Enterprises (SOE) in India. The procurement of goods, works and services is very vast both in terms of variety & volume. Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious. These challenges need to be addressed.

Procurement has become a specialized function in the era of globalization. The changing business environment calls for efficient, responsive and transparent purchase procedures. Today the world class organizations talk about the dedicated suppliers and emphasize on need of an efficient, transparent and effective supply chain management.

India spends up-to 20% of its GDP on Public Procurement, with some government departments earmarking as much as 50% of their annual budgets for such expenditure. In the manufacturing sector, the cost of material is sometimes up to 65% - 70% of the product cost and the quality of the finished product is heavily dependent upon the quality of material purchased, hence the impact of the procurement functions on cash flow & profitability is very high.

Sound Public Procurement policies and practices are among the essential elements of Good Governance, significantly impact the economy by generating demand and consumption, promote local industry and improve SMEs access to public procurement. Good practices reduce costs and produce timely results, poor practices lead to wastage of public funds and delays and are often the cause for allegations of corruption and inefficiency. The big question is "How to enhance efficiency & accountability becomes even more important.

India is a large country and has a very large public institutions / bodies at national & state level besides PSUs and other autonomous organizations. Public bodies are involved in construction of roads, canals, hospitals, bridges, schools, government buildings / offices etc. The procurement of goods varies for Defence, Railways, Health, Paramilitary forces etc. and the range are enormous.

Key Procurement Trends*Public Procurement & Contract Management*E-procurement – A Fully Digitized Procurement Process

E-procurement increases transparency as well as competition, simplifies and speeds up tendering process, eliminates human error, helps in seamless sharing of information, provides ease of operation and leads to quicker decision. It also facilitates pre and post contract management. A fully digitized Procurement process is imperative for the Government striving to minimize disruptions in delivering the day-to-day necessities to the people. E-Procurement plays the critical role in enabling a digital government. From increasing transparency, value for money, communication and innovation, E-Procurement not only ensures continuity but can drive value.

E-Procurement plays the critical role in enabling Digital Procurement Processes and support the entire procurement value chain

- ✓ Digital requests for quotations
- ✓ Sourcing to contract negotiations
- ✓ E-signatures and verification
- ✓ Supplier risk management
- ✓ Supplier financial analysis
- ✓ Procurement risk analysis
- ✓ Digital procurement network collaboration

Adoption of Government e-Marketplace (GeM) in Procurement

GeM - Government e-Market place is the national portal to make public procurement transparent & simple. Conceived by Government of India, GeM is an end-to-end e-commerce platform for procurement of goods & services by Government organizations. GeM offers all modes of procurement (direct purchase, L1, bid & reverse auction) in a paperless and cashless manner. The GeM portal is currently being used by almost all departments/ organizations of Central and State Governments as mandated mandatory by the Government of India.

Key Stakeholders of GeM

Buyers

- Central Govt.
- Central PSUs
- State Govt.
- State PSUs
- Autonomous Bodies

Sellers

- OEMs
- MSE
- Startup
- Authorized Resellers
- Service Providers

With the Central Government Ministries and undertakings buying goods & services of at least Rs.5 lacs to Rs 7 Lacs crore worth of every year, the big question is “How to enhance efficiency & accountability of public & private sector through “Procurement (Procedures & Contracting), Tenders, Bids & Contract Management” becomes even more important. Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious.

Government Market Is Not As Complex

Globally, with $ 10-12 trillion in market opportunity at stake, there are many companies / corporates, high value work / projects within a few weeks and building highly impactful business serving Government customers. India is therefore an important market for Multi-nationals & Foreign Companies looking to engage in new business and diversify into India’s potential roadmap of 5 trillion markets for business.

In India, Public buying procedures and policy instructions are based on the General Financial Rules (GFR) of the Dept. of expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. The General Financial Rules have been amended in March 2017 and Rule 149 has also been introduced in this regard. These are a compendium of general provisions to be followed by all offices of Government of India while dealing with matters of the financial nature.

Essentially, procurement means timely acquisition, purchase & delivery of goods, works and services at the best possible total cost of ownership to the customer. It includes estimate or indent preparation, tendering, contract management, catalogue management and auction and caters to procurement of all types—works, goods and services

Vendor Management Lifecycle –

Eight processes take place over the course of Vendor Management Lifecycle:

- Vendor Identification & Contact
- Vendor Qualification ( Risk Mitigation )
- Vendor Review & Selection
- Vendor Onboarding
- Vendor Performance Management
- Vendor Risk Management (VRM)
- Vendor Relationship Management
- Vendor Offboarding

(Vendor Management Lifecycle Aims to Improve Efficiency, Accuracy & Completeness across all Eight Procedures of the Vendor Management Lifecycle)

What does Contract Management Imply?

Every contract seems to provide adequate protection when it is negotiated and signed. However, during contract performance, disputes often arise between buying organizations and their suppliers. Not having a good contract management process in place has consequences to both the buying organization and the consuming departments. If no one is managing the performance of the contract, an organization is likely to fail to meet its goals that it had for the project associated with the contract. Such failures may include delayed timelines, cost overruns, and more.

Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) Contracts: Challenges and Project Milestone

An “Engineering, Procurement and Construction” or short EPC-Project is a particular form of contracting arrangement used in some industries where the EPC-Contractor is made responsible for all activities from design, procurement, construction, to commissioning and handover of the deliverables to the Owner.

In Engineering, procurement, and construction (EPC) contracts where the project involves supply, installation and commissioning of varied machines/equipment for establishing specialized maintenance/ information technology/communication/storage/overhauling facilities (with or without infrastructure) at one or more locations in the country. Such projects including up-gradation/modernization of existing assets may be carried out on Turnkey Basis and may also include setting up of requisite specialized technical infrastructure. The scope of such projects is large and varied involving number of activities.

For all major EPC Projects, a Detailed Project Report is prepared laying down detailed scope of work involved, bill of material, cost estimates and time frames for project completion.

In case of termination of EPC Contract (which are applicable for Turnkey Projects where milestone payments are involved), the title of the partially built Goods shall be transferred to the BUYER , if the BUYER exercises discretion to take over partially built Goods.

Keeping the above imperatives in mind, it is important to discuss and understand following issues:-

- What happens when the project is delayed?
- In what circumstances can the works be suspended?
- What is the cost to the employer for suspending the contractor?
- What is the consequence of an event of Force Majeure?
- Can the employer or the contractor terminate the agreement for prolonged Force Majeure?
- Is the contractor entitled to an extension of time?
- Can the award be enforced against the assets of the other party effectively?
- How the contract provide a mechanism for variations to the works ( “Variation”)
- whether the contract contains provisions providing for cost escalations or Cost savings as a result of a variation.
- How the contract provide obligations on the contractor to provide regular construction progress reports to the employer
- How the reporting requirements and the timelines for reporting dovetail with obligations that the employer has to the lenders under the finance documents?
- How the nature of the site of the project is thoroughly analyzed by the employer’s technical advisers and the lender’s technical advisers?
- Are there access issues relating to the project site which indicate the likelihood of delay?
- To what extent are atmospheric, meteorological, topographical, hydrological, geological and subsurface conditions relevant to the particular project?
- How the local applicable laws and regulations been reviewed in relation to the project?
- What is the impact of a change in law relating to a cost escalation?
